

LAUREL COUNTY HOMECOMING

Miss & Teen Pageant August 17th, 2024 8:00 pm

The 2024 pageant will be themed “Passing The Flame, Embracing the Spirit of Creativity”. This year we will highlight creativity. An info session will be on June 30th and July 14th from 2:00-4:00 at the Levi Jackson Clubhouse. This is not a formal required event but something to get you familiar with the pageant and be able to ask questions. You may come at any time during those hours. If that time does not work for you please let us know and we can try to accommodate your schedule.

Each contestant will be required to attend the “Passing the Flame” Tea. It will be Sunday August 11th from 1:00-3:00 at Oak Hill Gardens Outdoor Event Space. Sunday dress is recommended. They will have the opportunity to participate in a mock interview to help them with the interview on pageant day. Contestants will also have the opportunity to meet and greet people involved in our community, this will help build the communication skills needed for their year of service. Contestants will vote on Miss Congeniality during this time. Each contestant will be required to participate in the annual “Homecoming Parade”. It will be held on Saturday morning at 11:00. This year’s parade will be focused around Town Center Park. You must provide your own transportation during the parade. It can be a car, truck, float, etc. Please be creative and do not limit yourself! You will be wearing your “themewear” during parade presentation. You must provide signs on each side that state your name, contestant number and your themewear choice. This is a separate award and will be judged by a separate panel of judges. They will be dispersed throughout the crowd, and you will not know who they are. You will be judged on your attire and your presentation to the crowd throughout the parade route.

The official headshot photographers for this year are Jina Lafary and Keshia Amburgey with Studio 206. They will be providing each contestant with a digital pageant headshot. It is the contestant's responsibility to schedule an appointment with Jina or Keshia. These will take place on July 10th for Jina and July 17th for Keshia. Please contact me for the booking link. The photos will be taken at Studio 206 and each contestant will be able to choose which image they want to select for their headshot. They can also print and frame them for you for a $20.00 fee. This will be the photo displayed on main street, Sentinel-Echo, Facebook and Instagram. Once submitted these cannot be changed. One digital image will be provided by Studio 206 but you may choose to purchase others. Headshots are due for submission no later than July 30th. We will try to secure a pageant day photographer, but this is not guaranteed.

Private interview will occur in the afternoon of August 17th. Location is to be announced. Interviews will last 8 minutes plus a 30 second closing. Please use your closing time wisely. During this time you have the opportunity to clarify your response to any questions asked during your interview and/or to reiterate why you should be chosen as Miss or Teen Laurel County Homecoming. Please wear business casual attire for this division of competition. A knee length dress, skirt and blouse, or pant outfit with heels is acceptable.

Production will begin Saturday evening with a parade of contestants and contestant introductions. Each contestant will be wearing a T-shirt provided by a donor. In addition, the contestants will wear black capris/pants and shoes of your choice. We want you to have fun with the opening production as it is not a judged portion of the competition. Introductions should be in the following format: Your Miss contestant #1 Chelsea Philpot, a 17 year old senior at South Laurel High School. My sponsor is Philpot Tire (if applicable).

Themewear will follow the opening production. Choices must be turned in to the pageant director before the deadline of July 28th, 2024. Choices may not be repeated so please get your request in as early as possible. Contestants must select something that is themed "Passing The Flame, Embracing the Spirit of Creativity". This year we will highlight creativity. This could be through art, dance, music, drama, etc. We encourage thinking outside the box. Think about incorporating your choice into a scene in which you can carry yourself. You will be expected to dress in the likeness of your choice and to give a short description (no more than 20 seconds) of what you are representing and why you chose it. You are responsible for any/all props you wish to use and must notify the director one week in advance. If you do have props you must carry them or if you are using people as props they must come out with you when your name is called. You will also be responsible for the music you wish to use during this phase of competition.

Music MUST be emailed in mp3 format by July 28th. Please remember that themewear is NOT a talent competition.

On-Stage Question will follow theme wear. Please wear dressy casual attire for this portion of the competition. A sundress, romper, or shorts and blouse outfit with heels is acceptable. You will be asked two questions. One question will be a fun question to 'break the ice' and will be common knowledge. This is designed to give you a moment to gain comfort in front of the audience. The second question will be a question taken from a subject in your private interview.

The evening wear competition will follow on-stage questions. Please wear a floor length age appropriate gown of your choosing for the evening wear competition. A modeling pattern will be shown to you. Please choose a male to escort you on stage during this portion. They should be someone of high importance to you such as a father or brother. No boyfriends will be allowed. Escorts are to wear Sunday best (khakis, black pants, button-up, polo, etc.) They should be at the pageant no later than 9:00 but would prefer them to be there at 8:00 to make sure they are not late. There will be an announcement for them to make their way backstage. Let them know so they will listen to this. Following evening wear will be a final parade of contestants and awards ceremony/crowning.
